

KLIK EKSPLO GROUP

The 16th edition of the Annual International Fair is created under the feeling of a changed Albania (now member of NATO and soon member of the European family), fast in being reconstructed, careful in the pre-defined priorities, and willing to select the partners. As it happened before, in different stages of Albania's development, the Annual International Fairs have embraced one by one the topics and actualities of the change escalation of the country. The 16th edition of the Annual International Fair, too, will run on the parallel slides of the International Salons of:

- 1. Building sector focusing on the construction of big work, genesis of new infrastructures (e.g. the road infrastructure that will bring Kosovo closer through "Arber Road") or the renovation of the existing road (new railway network), etc.
- 2. Energy and alternative sources, utilization of everlasting water resources (renovation of hydro power plants) and discovery of alternative sources that nature is offering abundantly, such as the plants of Eolic energy in different areas of the country, solar energy, etc.
- 3. Autoshow, the salon of vehicles, which since the first edition was completed with the last stone in the pyramid of its range, by welcoming sailing vehicles, too.
- 4. Gallery of States, more than an International Salon is transformed into the subheading of every edition of the Annual International Fair. In the strategy of the biggest international companies, November is marked with read: in November, we go to Albania, to measure the know-how of investing in this country that absorbs you with its rhythms of development.
- 5. Radars of international companies sense other cooperation sectors with Albanian: agriculture industry and technology; banks and financial institutions, chemical and plastic industry; textile industry; wood elaboration and furniture; metal processing; conditioning systems, handicrafts, etc.

Figures of the last edition: 15th International Fair, innovates the way of experiencing an international event in Tirana: 800 exhibitors, (80% of which are foreign companies, including Albanian entrepreneurs being successful beyond the borders) and over 253.000 visitors, well-known names and state authorities, general public and trade visitors, contractors and researchers; in an exhibition area of over 22.000 m² (indoor and outdoor exhibition area. In the Exhibition Pavilions, the Albanian entrepreneurship is breathing with the same rhythm of the international one.
